“The only way to discover the limits of the possible is to go beyond them into the impossible.”

~ Arthur C. Clarke

Good day friends!

Our weekly Conversations with Cast & Crew are coming to an end with a special final episode being published today. Thank you to all who participated and all who watched. See the full list of episodes on the next page. Watch them any time on our Facebook Page: South Shore Theatrical Players – Authorized.

When one door closes a new one opens! Now we are preparing a fun seasonal theatrical event that you will be able to watch from the comfort of your couch this December. If regulations allow, we will also have a minimal number of tickets sold to attend the live event. Either way, it will be recorded for you to enjoy from home.

We all know the saying “the show must go on”. When performing, the cast endeavour to always stay in character and the crew works hard to keep the show moving. This is an integral part of having the audience experience suspension of disbelief – affectionately known as “theatre magic”. The action onstage becomes reality for an enchanting two hours as we cry, laugh, gasp and sit on the edge of our seats, until the curtain falls.

There is only one thing in theatre that makes us stop a show – and that is safety. If there is a threat to life or limb of a member of our cast, crew, or audience, then that becomes our priority. In this time of pandemic, that same practice is in place. We are dedicated to your entertainment, and as always, safety comes first!

The Board of Directors has a full schedule of theatre planned for 2021 that we are very excited about. We are keeping apprised of provincial health policies and are flexible with the timing and format of our productions.

In the interim we continue to have a lot of fun with workshops and I have some exciting news! We will have guest instructor Sherry Smith (MFA Theatre Voice Pedagogy) with us for a special workshop in November geared toward the aging voice and learning accents. See the next page for details. There are only eight spaces available so register soon.

By now you will have received our financial update letter with a request for support. Thanks to those who have donated, we have already reached the first $1,000 of our $10,000 goal. Watch our website for updates. If you have not yet had the chance, please consider making a donation in whatever amount works for you.

Let’s keep live theatre healthy, safe and fun!

Yours,

Colleen Naomi
