“I’m so glad I live in a world where there are Octobers.”
~ Anne of Green Gables (L.M. Montgomery)

October Greetings!

The quote above reminds me of South Shore Players’ production of Anne of Green Gables in 2015. Apart from being a Canadian classic with beautiful music, it was our final production at the Pearl Theatre. It also happened to be the first South Shore Players show that I attended as an audience member. As a new arrival to the South Shore, I had been introduced to SSP by Jon Allen less than a year earlier, when he gave me the chance to reprise my favourite role in The Mousetrap.

Like Anne, I love October! It is a time of sunny days and chilly evenings; hot apple cider and pumpkin pie. It is an opportunity for change and planning for the future, as our board of directors has been doing. And now, we are thrilled to announce our upcoming season in a special video on our Facebook page and YouTube channel.

I am very excited about our holiday production this year. I was able to sneak in to watch part of a recent rehearsal and I can tell you that we are all in for a treat when Canada’s Ocean Playground hits the stage. You will see many familiar faces, enjoy some great music, and have a laugh at the delightful skits.

Our new and improved website is up and running. This will make it easy for you to purchase tickets, sign up for memberships, make donations, and see what auditions and workshops are on the way. You can also check out information about our board of directors, awards, past performances, and more!

Yours,
