

AUDITION NOTICE

“The True Tale of Hansel and Gretel”

Directed By: Issie Patterson

The True Tale of Hansel and Gretel is a comedic adventure that turns the original story on its head by following the unlucky siblings as they try to survive in the winter woods in the days leading up to Christmas.

Casting Characters:

- We are looking for 13 actors and 5-8 singers/actors ages 7 and up.
- All experience levels are welcome.
- We are also always looking for off-stage roles, such as stage crew. No experience is required. Please contact the director indicating your interests.

Audition Dates:

- Thursday, June 25 @ 6pm-9pm and
- Saturday, June 27 @ 10am-1pm
- Audition times must be booked in advance and will be scheduled in 30-minute blocks. You must email the director to secure a date/time.
- If auditionees cannot attend either audition dates, please reach out to the director.

Audition Info: Auditionees will be asked to read aloud from our script; no memorization is required. Auditionees are also asked to prepare about thirty seconds of a song of their choice to sing acapella or with a recorded accompaniment. This is not mandatory, as there are non-singing roles, but it is encouraged.

Additional Info:

Commitment – Details regarding rehearsals will be discussed at the auditions. However, all cast members must have availability for evening tech/dress rehearsals November 30-December 3.

Seeking Musicians – The music director is looking for a violinist and a cellist to join the band for this production. Please email the director, if you are interested.

Audition & Performance Location: South Shore Players’ Theatre, 123 Empire Street, Bridgewater.

Performance Dates: December 4-6 and 11-13, 2026. Actors must be available for both performance weekends.

To book an audition and/or ask questions?

Email the director, Issie Patterson, at: isabeljoanpatterson@gmail.com